CUT HERE

Lily and the People is a teaching pottery school.

Creative expression is a very necessary human experience. All people should be offered the opportunity to develop their creativity and expressive voice. Join our lighthearted environment and discover, joy in creativity, skills in hand eye coordination, cooperation and peer support, problem solving and reaching personal goals. Classes will continually be offered in throwing on the potters wheel and classes on the handbuilding processes. Please see current schedule for listings.

Our Purpose

Education, exploration and community are all values which Lily and the People embody.

A place where young and old can begin and develop their relationship with the arts.

A place where the community can flourish and give back to others a wealth that is shared in the spirit of community.
